

AUTUMN AT THE PALMER HOUSE INN

Autumn will soon be here. THE CAPE IS LIVELY AND BEAUTIFUL this season. Our milder climate, tempered by the proximity to the ocean, make our fall colors last well into November. Most of Falmouth's fine restaurants are open. Our quaint shops are also open with great opportunities for 'end of season sale' shopping.

We will be happy to help you to plan a foliage sight seeing day, whether its by car or on foot, exploring Falmouth's many hiking trails. Why fight the crowds of northern New England when it is all right here on the Cape.

Thinking ahead to Summer 2009

Book your summer holiday by March 1, 2009 to receive 2008 rates.

Halloween "Old Burying Ground" Reenactment

Oct. 25th 1-3 pm, there will be a reenactment at Falmouth's Pre-Revolutionary "Old Burying Ground." Leading citizens from days gone by, rise from their graves and tell about their lives and times. Hot mulled cider and freshly baked Irish oatmeal cookies will be served in our parlor at 4:00pm. Admission is free.

Thanksgiving

November 27th and 28th, come and enjoy an old fashioned Thanksgiving Eve at the Palmer House with Hot mulled cider by a crackling fire. On Thanksgiving Day, enjoy a traditional New England Meal at the The Regatta (www.regattarestaurant.com) or The Nimrod (www.thenimrod.com) with a $50.00 gift certificate towards the cost of your meals. Be sure to call early because seating is limited.

Explore Falmouth's Walking Trails with Naturalist Todd Kelley

Discover upland woodlands a blaze with Autumn's finest colors, Pine Barrens, red maple & white cedar swamps, freshwater glacial kettle holes, vernal pools and coastal marshes. Observe a tidal river with spectacular salt water views or learn about the capes native birds and animals. Hikes can range from short easy walks to all day adventures.

Some of Falmouth's hiking areas include: Beebe Woods, Crane Wildlife Management, Waquoit Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve, and the Ashumet Holly Audubon Sanctuary. (Kelley's hikes start at $25.00 an hour per person. For more details on the hikes and to book a hike, go to www.kelleytrailblazer.com, tel. 508.945.9929.)
